Sojourn's 40-hour Training

Community members are invited to attend a domestic violence counselor training that meets the standards of California Evidence Code §1037.1

After the training, volunteers can help serve adult & child victims through:

- Hotline Program
- Support Services
- Children's Program

The course fee is waived for volunteers but please note that your counselor training certificate will not be issued until 6 months of volunteer service have been completed.

Those not interested in volunteering with Sojourn will be assessed $250.

To access the training application, please visit Sojourn's website, or see the contact information below:
